It was these wars which for the first time, create rules in the world. So long as a tribe went hunting in peace-time there was no need for a chief or a king or a ruler of any kind. There was perfect equality and democracy. Custom was the only law and the public opinion of the tribe saw to it that custom was respected. When the tribes began to poach on one another's hunting and fishing ground, however, the opportunity was provided by the ensuing battle for a leader to arise. It is thus that creates dictators and dictators who in turn cause war." (107 words)
